WHY SHOULD I BE IN A MENTORING GROUP?

Undergraduate students who are in a mentoring group are more likely to:

- Get better grades.
- Have a better undergraduate experience.
- Meet other students.

You will also get:

- Invitations to LEADERSHIP events.
- Opportunities to meet NOTABLE UofL FIGURES
- FREE FOOD at many leadership events.
- SUPPORT from new friends.

Who benefits most from the Ambassadors Peer Mentoring Program?

- Students taking 100, 200 and 300 level courses.
- Students who want to enhance their college experience.

How do I sign up?

- Submit this completed form during orientation (or mail to REACH, Strickler Hall 126, UofL, Louisville, KY 40292).

When will I meet my mentor?

- Summer sign-up: Your mentor will contact you the week before Welcome Weekend.
- Fall or spring sign-up: Your mentor will contact you within two weeks of your application submission.
- You will get together with your mentor at Welcome Weekend, at scheduled Ambassador Leadership events or anytime on your own.

What will be required of me?

- Respond to weekly e-mails and/or phone calls from assigned Ambassador
- Meet with the Ambassador “person-to-person” twice during each semester.
- Attend two Ambassador events each semester. Different options available fall and spring semester including Welcome Weekend, Kick-off event, small group events, four Ambassador Leadership events.
